The Best Dictionary Yet Printed

Indianapolis News—"A dictionary that almost attains the latitude of an encyclopedia is the New Modern English Dictionary. Besides having an unusually large vocabulary of words, both ancient and modern, it contains words that have become popularized through aviation and other new creations. It also has the latest census, a section of foreign words and phrases, a dictionary of Commercial and Legal terms, a collection of Synonyms and Antonyms and a very good map of the United States. A novel section is that of the names of famous characters in prose and poetry."

General Description

This NEW MODERN ENGLISH DICTIONARY supplies the popular demand for a RELIABLE and CONVENIENT dictionary of the English language. The highest authorities have been consulted and eminent specialists have been brought together to make this book AUTHENTIC and COMPLETE in all respects.

While based upon the ORIGINAL work of NOAH WEBSTER, it is brought up to the PRESENT in every particular. All pronunciations are MODERN and are plainly indicated by phonetic spelling; the definitions are comprehensive, though concise; the type is large and clear; each page carries a running key-word which shows the first and last word defined on that particular page, thus avoiding the use of a cumbersome thumb-index; instead of meaningless text pictures, the entire work is profusely illustrated with full-page color plates, monotones and duograph charts; following the dictionary proper is a Reference Library, which in itself is a complete treasury of facts for every-day use.

The world's greatest authorities on the English language are to be found in American universities and colleges, and from these sources came the knowledge set forth in the NEW MODERN ENGLISH DICTIONARY. The editor-in-chief, Prof. Harry Thurston Peck, Ph. D., Litt. D., LL. D., has long been recognized as the foremost lexicographer and authority on languages and literature. Among the editorial contributors are Albert Stanburrough Cook, Ph. D., LL. D., professor in Yale University; John C. Rolfe, Ph. D., professor in the University of Pennsylvania and President of the American Philological Association; Prof. Theodore W. Koch, Ph. D. D. Sc., of the University of Michigan; Prof. Charles F. Johnson, A. M., Ph. D., of Trinity College; Prof. Donald L. Clark, A. B., of DePauw University; John S. P. Tatlock, Ph. D., professor in the University of Michigan, and J. A. Joffe, A. M., consulting expert to the Congressional Library at Washington, D. C.

A collection of 12,000 Synonyms and Antonyms has been arranged by Lillian H. Du Bois, Instructor in the Wharton Combined School of Philadelphia. This is an entirely new list which comprises far more Antonyms than have ever before appeared in a similar collection.

You are only required to show your indorsement of this great educational opportunity by filling out the certificate of appreciation printed on another page of this issue, with five others of consecutive dates, and presenting them at this office, with the expense bonus amount herein set opposite any style of Dictionary selected (which covers the items of the cost of packing, express from the factory, checking, clerk hire and other necessary EXPENSE items), and you will be presented with

The NEW MODERN ENGLISH DICTIONARY is just off the press—it is NEW throughout—newly edited, newly compiled, newly printed from new type, with all the NEW WORDS, with its pronunciations and definitions brought UP TO DATE, with everything pertaining to it the VERY LATEST. It is the best possible to obtain at any price. Who does not NEED a NEW dictionary? But what is a NEW dictionary? Putting a new cover on old contents makes a new book, but it does not make a new dictionary. Adding a few modern words to plates of ancient date does not bring the work up to the present. But a NEW compilation IS a NEW dictionary.

Chicago

Record-Herald

"Will prove useful to people who desire a dictionary COMPLETE without being bulky or cumbersome."

Aviation and Automobile Terms

In addition to the above are glossaries of Aviation and Automobile terms, prepared by Alfred W. Lawson, Editor of AIRCRAFT, and Julian Chase, Ph. B., Editor of MOTOR. From such able authorities, one may be assured of the latest pronunciations and definitions in these departments.

Other important sections are ably edited by Prof. Frederick Taber Cooper, LL. B., Ph. D.; Prof. Robert Arrowsmith, Ph. D.; Prof. C. L. Meader, Ph. D., and Robert Gordon Grant, A. M., Ph. D. Such an array of efficient authorities never before came together, and the grand result is a PERFECT dictionary of the English language, accurate, authentic, complete. It is UP TO DATE—the dictionary of TO-DAY—a positive means for ADVANCEMENT in this PROGRESSIVE age.

Lou'ville

Times:

"It is revised and brought to its present state of PERFECTION under the best and latest authorities on language."
